

SPACECOAST ASHRAE/CANAVERAL SECTION ASME GOLF TOURNAMENT

Who:

YOU! You're invited to join us for a beautiful afternoon of golf for a great cause

What:

First Annual Spacecoast ASHRAE/Canaveral Section of ASME Golf Tournament to benefit the Marvin M. Yarosh and John H. "Jack" Wiles Endowed Scholarship at Florida Tech

Where:

Viera East Golf Club, 2300 Clubhouse Drive, Viera, FL 32955

When:

Friday, November 6, at 12:30 p.m.
Registration and lunch served at 11:00 a.m.

Why:

Marvin Yarosh and Jack Wiles were pioneers in mechanical engineering on the Space Coast. Mr. Yarosh was a founding member of the local American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air Conditioning Engineers and was the first Assistant Director for the Florida Solar Energy Center. Mr. Wiles was an inspiration to all who knew him, serving as a charter member of the local ASME Chapter and playing a critical role in forming the Canaveral Council of Technical Societies.

In honor of these two outstanding engineers, the local ASHRAE and ASME Chapters have teamed together to create an endowed scholarship at the Florida Institute of Technology's Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering Department. This event is a fundraiser to help us reach our goal of $25,000.
