

ASME Refresher Course for the Professional Engineers Exam

Starting in September, the Nebraska Section of ASME will be hosting 5 classes for individuals interested in reviewing instructional materials for the Professional Engineers Exam. For those looking to renew their license, CEU credits can be provided. There is no cost for the course or materials, and you do not have to be an ASME member. This course starts on September 9th and continues weekly through October 14th.

Please reserve your spot in the class by calling Dave Stransky at HDR's Omaha office at 399-1258 during the day or by e-mail at david.stransky@hdrinc.com. Be sure to include your phone number and an e-mail address where you want course materials sent (or mailing address if you need a printed copy).
