

Nebraska Section ASME
Executive Committee Meeting Minutes

Date: Dec. 8, 2008 Time: 7:00am Place: Wheatfields

In Attendance	Ruhl, Stransky, Iwand, Madden, Redinger, Fluehr, and Bowman
Membership (Iwand)	Working on obtaining new members
Treasurer's (Stransky)	Paid presenter of the Metallurgy Fundamental Course held in November. The checking account is approx. $8300 and the savings account is approx. $5000.
Jan. Tour (Stransky)	Looking into possible tour to Lincoln Composites, Speedway, or Duncan Aviation more information in the December newsletter.
March PD course (Fluehr)	Pursuing a 2 to 3 day course involving pumps.
Gov't Affairs (Redinger)	PE licensure moving slowly.....nothing to report
Scholarships (Redinger)	The application for scholarships will be sent out in January to all college students.
Engr's Roundtable (Dick)	A banquet speaker has been set up.
Newsletter (Carlson)	A newsletter is planned to go out to all members towards the end of December.

Other Items

- 2 leadership plaques to be made and then handed out to last year's ASME chairman and the other for this year's chairman.
- It was agreed by the council to give this year's ASME Industrial Award to RSI Materials Engineering.
- It was agreed by the council to donate $750.00 to the UNL Baha race group and ask that the Baha team add an ASME decal to the car and give a short presentation (including photos) to the NE ASME chapter.

Next Meeting

Thursday, Jan. 15, 2008, 7:30am, at Wheatfields (102nd & Pacific)